Welcome to the Precept Bible studies in the Greater SC and Augusta Ga area. The list is organized by the days of the week.

Please contact the leader or admin before class begins to sign up. IF you already have your book, please let the leader/admin know when you sign up.

Ask the leader the cost of the class. Some have extra expense to help pay for the DVD's and/or CD's.

Most PUP (Precept Upon Precept series) classes are two hours:

First hour is a discussion as you reason together with your classmates and the trained Precept Upon Precept leader using your five days of homework.

Second hour is watching the lecture (DVD) of Kay Arthur, David Arthur, Wayne Barber, Pete DeLacy, or David Lawson.

There are limited classes with child care. Please see details listed by each class information.

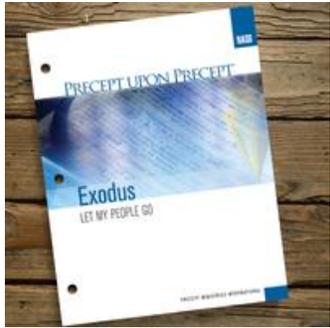

Lexington Baptist Church offers Precept classes for the family, adults, youth and children. "Precept for the Family" on Sunday evenings.

Please check the local website for details on any local trainings, conferences and workshops. scprecept.org

As the gospel spread across the Roman world in the first decades after Jesus' earthly ministry, conflict arose. Jews and Gentiles were believing the gospel, and a struggle over what it meant to be a Christian began. What does it mean to live under grace? Do you have to keep the Law to be a Christian? All of it or just part of it? Who is right? How will we know?

God used an apostle to write a letter to some churches that were struggling with this issue, a letter that still speaks today. Its message clearly defines the relationship between Law and grace, and how Christians live under grace, led by the Spirit, free from bondage.

A Blueprint for Building a Love that Lasts. Marriage begins with visions of eternal love, hope, and happiness. Yet, even among Christians, hope too quickly fades. The happiness dims. And love seems too hard to sustain. It doesn't have to be that way. God designed marriage to be a satisfying, fulfilling relationship, and He created men and women so that they-together, and as one flesh-could reflect His love for the world. Marriage, when lived out as God intended, makes us complete, it brings us joy, and gives our lives fresh meaning. In this study, you'll examine God's design for marriage, and you'll learn, from the Designer's perspective, what it means to be a godly husband or wife. You'll discover biblical wisdom for pursuing harmony in difficult areas such as finances, communication, and respect for each other's roles. Most important, you'll learn the principles you need to build a love that lasts.

Unleash the Healing Power of Forgiveness

As imperfect people living in an imperfect world, we eventually confront in nearly every relationship the need to extend or receive forgiveness. But when the wounds run deep, forgiveness doesn't come easy.

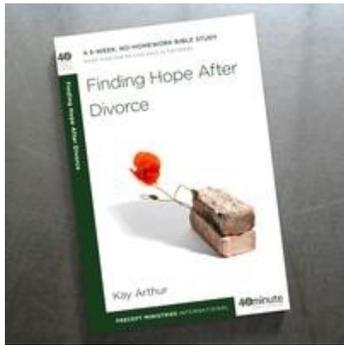

This eye-opening study deals with the difficult questions of forgiveness, including How can I forgive when the pain is so great? Does forgiving mean I have to forget the past? and What if I choose not to forgive? As you dig into what the Bible says on this vital topic, you'll encounter the depths of God's own mercy and discover how choosing forgiveness can free you from a painful past and propel you toward being all that God intends you to be.

The most important question you will ever answer is this: Who do you believe Jesus Christ is? With all the opinions floating around – He's a good man, a teacher, a prophet, the Son of God – how can you know who is right? Mark's account of Jesus' life gives you the answer, and it is more action-packed and fast-paced than the other three Gospel records. Rather than rehearsing what people said about Jesus, Mark shows you what Jesus actually did. As you learn to carefully observe Mark's report, you'll discover that Jesus left no doubt about who He claimed to be. His miracles demonstrated His authority over sickness and infirmity, spiritual darkness, dead religion, threats from nature, and even death itself.
