Welcome to the Precept Bible studies in the Greater Columbia area. The list has been updated for fall 2020 following the listing for winter/spring 2021.

Please contact the leader or admin before class begins to sign up. IF you already have your book, please let the leader/admin know when you sign up. Some classes are Zoom only, some have an option of Zoom. Please contact the leader for more information.

Ask the leader the cost of the class. Some have extra expense to help pay for the DVD's and/or CD's.

Most PUP (Precept Upon Precept series) classes are two hours:

First hour is a discussion as you reason together with your classmates and the trained Precept Upon Precept leader using your five days of homework.

Second hour is watching the lecture (DVD) of Kay Arthur, David Arthur, Wayne Barber, Pete DeLacy, or David Lawson.

There are limited classes with child care. Please see details listed by each class information.

There is one church which offers Precept classes for the family, adults, youth and children. "Precept for the Family"

Precept has made several updates this year of 2020. The PUP and InOut covers have changed, they are dark green. I have used the old covers as visuals on this document and the local website. If you use the order number by each course you will have ordered the correct workbook.

Please check the local website for details on any local trainings, conferences and workshops. scprecept.org

The most important question you will ever answer is this: Who do you believe Jesus Christ is? With all the opinions floating around - He's a good man, a teacher, a prophet, the Son of God - how can you know who is right? Mark's account of Jesus' life gives you the answer, and it is more action-packed and fast paced than the other three Gospels records. Rather than rehearsing what people said about Jesus, Mark shows you what Jesus actually did. As you learn to carefully observe Mark's report, you'll discover that Jesus left no doubt about who He claimed to be. His miracles demonstrated His authority over sickness and infirmity, spiritual darkness, dead religion, threats from nature, and even death itself.

In these days of economic uncertainty, and in a society that values financial security, money is an emotional topic. Appearances and lifestyle matter to us. And money-or the lack of it-often determines whether or not we are content. The truth is, our attitudes toward money and possessions reflect the quality of our relationship with God. And, according to the Scriptures, our view of money reveals where our true affections lie.

Prosperity is not a sin, but it does bring responsibilities. And scarcity is not a virtue, particularly when it distracts us from the things that truly matter.

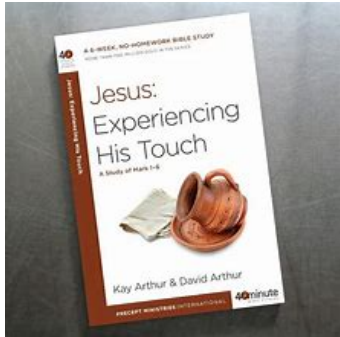

In this six-week study you will discover God's view of material wealth. As you dig into the Scriptures, you'll learn where money comes from, you'll see how we're supposed to handle it, and you'll understand how to live an abundant life, regardless of your financial circumstances.

Over and over, Jesus responded with compassion, interacting on a personal level with individuals who had been cast aside by society, their circumstances deemed beyond hope. When painful or frustrating circumstances invade your life, it's easy to wonder why. Why does life so often seem unfair? Why doesn't our all-powerful God stop the pain and suffering - not just for you - but for all His children. The truth is, we live in a fallen world filled with fallen people, and we cannot escape hardship and pain. Somehow difficult times are a part of God's plan and they serve His purposes. In this six-week study you'll examine what the Bible says about suffering and why God allows it. Through the stories of many who persevered through times of testing, you'll discover how to find joy even when life seems unfair. You'll learn how to handle loss while glorifying God in the midst of your pain. And you'll find the peace that comes from trusting in the One whose strength is made perfect in your weakness.
